

LUNENBURG LITERARY FESTIVAL

November 7 - 9, 2024

November 7

Thursday, 1:30 pm Kids Event

Chad Lucas

Thursday, 7 pm - Opening Night - Celebration of Mi'Kmaq Storytelling

Join Donna Morris in a storytelling event presented in partnership with the Lunenburg Academy Foundation. Oral history was the Mi'kmaw way of remembering specific events. We'll be led through history with Donna by a story that will keep us thinking and rethinking.

Storyteller - Donna Morris

Lunenburg Academy

November 8

Friday, 7 pm - Will He or Won't He?

Stephen Maher discusses his latest work The Prince: the Turbulent Reign of Justin Trudeau with journalist Stephen Kimber. We'll hear some fresh insights into the question everyone is asking.

Stephen Maher

Hosted by Stephen Kimber

St. John's Parish Hall, 64 Townsend Street

November 9

Saturday 2 pm - Pitch The Publisher

Come support emerging writers as they Pitch their story to 3 Publishers in hopes of landing a deal. The panel is made up of stalwarts of the industry from House of Anansi Press, Karen Brochu, Goose Lane Editions, Simon Thibault, Nimbus Publishing, Whitney Moran.

Moderated by Bruce Walsh.

St. John's Parish Hall, 64 Townsend Street

Saturday 7 pm - Murder in A Small Town!

What is it about sleepy small towns and thrillers? Come find out, if you dare, as we host 3 fantastic thriller authors. Shari Lapena headlines the evening with her latest novel, What Have You Done?, with Tom Ryan with his new adult novel, The Treasure Hunters Club and CS Porter and their debut novel, Beneath Her Skin. Hosted by Jeff Mercer.

Shari Lapena, Tom Ryan, CS Porter

St. John's Parish Hall, 64 Townsend Street
